Restless artists enliven and diversify Australian dance.

Led by Artistic Director Michelle Ryan, one of Australia's foremost dance artists, Restless Dance Theatre creates high quality real, raw and uninhibited dance theatre. It is Australia's leading dance theatre company working with people with and without disability to collaboratively create outstanding inclusive dance theatre informed by disability. Our artists may not fit the stereotypical dancer image but it is in their difference that we see their astounding beauty and vigorous creativity.

Restless has developed a way of working that produces unique, distinctive and very striking dance through a process that nurtures the creative voices of the performers, artists and participants. We offer life-changing opportunities for young people through exposure to high quality arts experiences and significant professional development opportunities. Our hope is to continue to transform lives, touch audiences, inspire greatness and help to shift perceptions about disability well into the future.

Making a bequest in your will is a thoughtful way to ensure that the vital work of Restless Dance Theatre continues for a long time to come.

We invite you to consider nominating Restless Dance Theatre in your estate planning. Your gift, large or small, will help us to secure a bright future.
